

There are no formal accommodations (yet) in the Lockwood area, however we recommend the following hotels, motels, inns, and B&B's, all of which are within a 15 minute to an hour drive. Paso Robles is about 35 minutes.

Special Note: Accommodations marked "Available Sat. 6/21" still had rooms as of Noon, Wednesday, June 18, 2003. Most others were already sold out, but you can always check for last minute cancellations.

Nearest Accommodations:

THE HACIENDA at FORT HUNTER LIGGETT •

Mission Road in Fort Hunter Liggett. Box 712, Jolon, CA 93928
(831) 386-2900 or (831) 386-2446 • www.usawines.com/hacienda/
Designed by Julia Morgan and built by William Randolph Hearst for his hunting guests! Originally Hearst's hunting lodge in "Valley of the Oaks". Early California Mission style. As the Hacienda is managed by the U.S. Military, well, it's guest rooms are only a step above "base housing". If you can get a room, and don't mind roughing it a bit, this is a great value. Located at the foot of the Santa Lucia Mountains, it is a great "starting point" to visit the Ventana Wilderness area, Mission San Antonio de Padua, and the drive along Nacimiento-Ferguson Road (just 45 minutes) to the Big Sur Coast at Lucia is one of the most scenic in the world (truly)!
Rates 6/2003: $125 Suite, $50 Tower Rooms, $41 Garden Rooms, $28 Cowboy Rooms (shared bath) (28 rooms)
